

FUN IN Key West

MICHELE O'CONNOR

About Me

Fun in Key West is a love letter to an island — sunshine, salt air, and stories worth telling. Founded by Michele O'Connor, a longtime visitor who fell hard for the Florida Keys. It's where curious travelers go to fall a little deeper for the Keys. Michele hops on the tours everyone's curious about, stays at the places they've been eyeing, and chases down the history, the legends, and the wonderfully weird stories behind it all — then tells them the way you'd hear it from a friend who knows the island. Because Fun in Key West was never about a list of places. It's about the place itself.
